With the 1st of May, 1886, St. Luke's weather is propitious large crowds will go down both Tuesday and Thursday eve-A pic-nic and barbecue will be given for to the public for the first time in May, 1883, commencing with about fifteen patients. Each year shows a large increase in the number of both pay patients and those entertained free of all expense. For the hospital year ending April 31, 1886, overing a period of less than eleven months, 501 patients were received in St. Luke's. Forty-nine of these were guests of the Board of Managers, and fared in every respect as did those who paid the highest prices. Some of these guests remained for several months. Five children received the benefit of the endowed "Mabel and Maggie Cot," and over one hundred perthe benefit of Peterville church, Powhatan county, to-morrow at Maiden's-Adventure Dam. The fare will be both choice and heap, inasmuch as a tempting menu will be prepared and tickets sold for $1, which nuttles the helder to admission to a lecture to be delivered in this city by Dr. W. W. Among the favorite pic-nic grounds near Richmond is Young's Pond, about three miles from the city. The place is very pretty, and can be engaged either for day or evening parties.

Mount Pleasant is now open for the pic-nic season. This place is on the Chesanic season. This place is on the Chesa-peake and Ohio railroad, and is often se-lected by pie-nic parties on account of its
